

WBFS-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

January 1, 2018 through March 31, 2018

Attached are listings of broadcasts or broadcast segments that, in the Station's judgment, reflect the Station's most significant programming treatment of ascertained issues during the preceding three-month period. The Station also produced and broadcast public service announcements promoting local community events and campaigns.

FACING SOUTH FLORIDA - A half-hour weekly public affairs program featuring local experts and public officials engaged in a discussion of current issues affecting the South Florida community. Broadcast dates and times as indicated in the report.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA - A monthly half-hour public affairs broadcast featuring panel discussions and interviews with community leaders, focusing on important issues of local concern. Broadcast dates and times as indicated in the report POLITICS: Topics in this category include: Tallahassee's 60-day session; President Trump's controversial comments about Haiti; race for U.S. Congressional District 21; high school shooting; gun legislation.

FACING SOUTH FLORIDA: 1/7 12PM: State Senator Anitere Flores and State Representative Shevrin Jones looked ahead to what could be expected in Tallahassee from this year's 60-day session. Ed Pozzuoli, past Chairman GOP Broward County discussed the upcoming races for Florida Governor and the Congressional race to replace the retiring Rep. Ileana Ros-Lehtinen. 1/14 12PM: Commissioner Jean Monestime, Miami-Dade District discussed the President's controversial comments about Haiti and why he believes the president is misinformed. Congresswoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz discussed Haiti comments and other issues facing the legislature including the new tax bill. 2/11 12PM: Bruno Barreiro, Miami-Dade County Commissioner discussed why he is running to replace Ileana Ros-Lehtinen as representative of U.S. District 27. 2/25, 12PM, Chief Tony Pustizzi, Coral Springs Department, discussed the deadly school shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School. What happened in the moments after the shooting took place and how his team responded. They also discussed lessons that were learned and what the chief would like to see happen in the future. 3/4, 12PM: U.S. Rep. Ted Deutch discussed the deadly school shooting in Parkland, congress and the push for gun legislation. 3/11, 12PM: Former Mayor Philip Levin discussed the recently approved Florida gun bill and why he believes lawmakers need to do more. Donna Shalala, former president of the University of Miami discussed why it is very critical time in our county. 3/18, 12PM: Jared Mosckowitz, Florida State Representative discussed why he voted for the Florida gun bill and focused on the bill the legislature passed in response to the mass shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School. Mary Barzee Flores, former judge discussed why she is running as a Democrat to replace retiring Republican Rep. Ileana Ros-Lehtinen.

FAMILY/YOUTH: Topics in this category include: mentoring children; cancer charity event; Cuban photography exhibit; Dance Theater celebrating Black History Month; student shooting survivors of Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School; suicide prevention; protecting the environment through the arts.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 1/28, 10AM: Gale Nelson, President Big Brother Big Sister Miami, Robert Corey Edwards, Big Brother, shared that this mentoring organization is celebrating 60 years of championing children in our community. This segment focused on how Mentoring Matters, giving viewers a fist-hand look at the special relationship that can exist between a mentor and a child. 1/28, 10AM: Dr. Breelyn Wilky, Oncologist, Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center, focused on the life-saving impact of the Dolphins Cancer Challenge, a cancer charity. 1/28, 10AM Luis Castaneda, photographer, Julia Andrews, Exec. Dir., Coral Springs Museum of Art, focused on Cuban born photographer's Cuban National Ballet work and life in Cuba. 1/28, 10AM: Robert Battle, Director of Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, discussed his Liberty City upbringing and his company's February performances at the Arsht Center, which celebrate Black History Month. 2/25, 10AM: Rudy Harris, student and Rachel Padnis, student discussed the aftermath of the massacre at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School. This segment focused on two student survivors who hid in classroom closets as the shooter went on his deadly rampage. 2/25, 10AM: Jill Ehrenreich May, Ph.D., University of Miami Assoc. Professor, focused on the aftermath of the massacre at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School with a child psychology expert about the trauma and how parents, children and the community can process the tragedy. 2/25, 10:00AM: Brandon Okpalobi, Exec. Director and Founder, DIBIA Dream, discussed the DIBDA Dream, a mentoring nonprofit that helps local at-risk youth beat the odds by fostering life skills. 3/25, 10AM: Dr. Jeremy Pettit, Director, FIU Child Anxiety & Phobia Program, focused on why the suicide crisis is worsening among young people, and how parents can recognize and attack the warning signs. 3/25, 10AM: Cornelia Dozier, founder Coconut Grove Playhouse Children's Theater and an African-American Achiever Awards honoree for the arts, continues to actively promote the arts in South Florida. 3/25, 10AM: Dale Andree, Director National Water Dance, focused on how this annual event, returning to South Florida, raises awareness of the environment in a way people can enjoy and participate. FACING SOUTH FLORIDA: 2/18 12PM: Senator Marco Rubio and Robert Runcie, Superintendent Broward County Schools focused on the days following the massacre at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School.

GOVERNMENT/INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS: Topics in this category include: mid-term elections; the cost of Miami –Dade Detainer Program; the dreamers movement;

FACING SOUTH FLORIDA: 1/28. 12PM: Craig Smith, Political Consultant, focused on 2018 mid-term elections and the possibility of Donna Shalala running for office to replace Ileana Ros-Lehtinen. Matt Haggman, Democratic candidate for District 27 is one of a least eight democrats running to replace the retiring Republican Congresswoman. 2/4, 12PM: Alana Greer, Community Justice Project, Jonathan Fried, WECOUNT & Florida Immigration Coalition discussed the impact of the Miami-Dade policy change of detaining prisoners or ICE. They focused on a new study saying taxpayers are paying millions of extra dollars to keep these prisoners behind bars. 2/4 12PM: Laura Wides-Munoz, author of The Making of a Dream, discussed the story of a group of young undocumented immigrants who helped change what it means to be an American and the dreamers movement and why it's so critical at this time. 2/11, 12PM: Congresswoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz and Max Richtman, National Committee to Preserve Social Security and Medicare focused on what the increase in spending in the new federal budget means for Social Security and Medicare. 3/25 1PM: The March for Our Lives took place on Saturday, 3/24. This segment showed highlights of the speeches made by students at the march in Washington, D.C. Adam Buchwald, student at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School, focused on the #NeverAgain movement and how they can influence lawmakers.